7. Community Connections Grant (CCG) Recap and Parent Leadership Efforts

Julie Gallelo provided the following report:

- Program highlights and success during the past five years were shown through a four minute video and conveyed the following:
 - Parents are community leaders and motivators
 - How a very small investment went a long way
 - Collaborative partners: CAPC and Lead4Tomorrow
 - Increased motivation for virtual meetings during COVID
- CCG group leaders and other parents were surveyed about their interest in being more involved in advocating for their communities.
- As a result, community voice will be represented at the First 5 Advisory Committee, the Home Visiting Coordination Collaborative, the Sacramento County Prevention Cabinet, among other committees. Community members will also take an active role in REDI efforts, website development, planning for trainings and more.
